

WALKED IN ATTEMPT TO GET BONUS A

ARMED VETS RETURN TENTS TO THEM

Order Served by Federal Marshal Necessary to Evict Men From Capital

By EDWARD R. LOCKETT
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Washington, July 23 (INS).—The District government was on record today as through with leniency toward the bonus army—but was up a tall, tail, torn over the problem of moving the marchers out of town.

District commissioners ordered the veterans to clear out, and issued the edict Thursday, only to have to rescind it 24 hours later because of "legal requirements" not yet met.

In apparent that in order to properly "evict" a marcher from the capital, it would be necessary for a U. S. marshal to serve an eviction order on him.

TENTS DEMANDED.

The best the commissioners could do in inaugurating a policy designed to compel evacuation of the bonus or bonus camp was to order the veterans to return the tents, rolling kitchens and similar supplies loaned them by the National Guard. They called for return of the supplies by long range.

Action of the commission in rescinding its order was a necessary step, it was said, in order to involve in the provision calling for evacuation by last night of the bonus marchers' quarters on Pennsylvania avenue.

Walter W. Waters had directed his men to passively resist the evacuation unless new quarters were first provided, and fully 3000 men were prepared to go on the stiffest sort of "passive resistance."

The evacuation ultimatum drew fire from Capitol Hill almost as soon as issued. Senator Thomas (D.) of Oklahoma, who has supported the veterans' fight for payment of soldiers' adjusted compensation certificates, warned that the national capital might be the scene of serious trouble if authorities failed to carry out such an order.

"REBELS TO LEAVE"

Attention of officials centered on the exodus of the Robertsons to Los Angeles and his California "rebels" marchers today. Robertson said to take his men to the left, but the marchers remained behind. He brought about 400 Californians with him, a dramatic scene of protest against adjournment of Congress without enactment of bonus legislation, and they expected to take nearly 1000 marchers away.

Officials were hopeful the exodus of Robertson would provide the incentive for other departures.

2 MEN HELD IN SEEKER DEATH

Hobbs, July 23—Two Central Falls, R. I., men were arrested at State police barracks early today charged with murder in connection with the slaying of John Russell, a convict of Boston, who was found bound and slain there last night.

They gave their names as Frank Domaskalski, 42, and Louis Gwizdomski, 36.

They pleaded not guilty in Taunton district court and were held without bail until July 26.

State Detective Clemmey declared his investigation of the slaying had produced evidence which warranted holding both men.

He said the motive behind the slaying lay in Russell's knowledge of the illegal activities of the two. He denied the killing was a revenge slaying for an attack on a girl.

Russell's body was found in the rear of the Mary Wheeler school farm, near St. Albans, N. H. skull fractured and he had been stabbed to the heart and the knife turned around.

Russell served 13½ years in Rhode Island state prison for criminal assault.

TODAY

Continued from First Page.

Navy. That is as intelligent as though our nation wanted to be under divided management of sailing captains and canal boatmen.

Buried dead in the approach that Premier Bennett of Canada made to visiting Britishers who had this about the new Lawrence Canal.

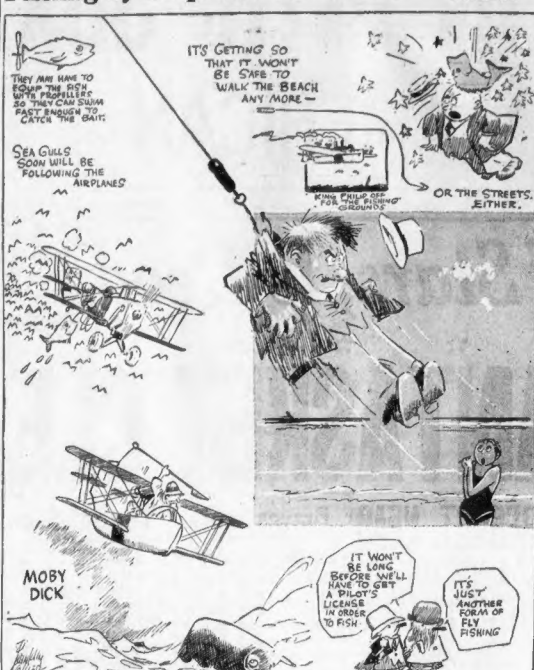

"THIS WATERWAY WILL BE FREE TO ALL SHIPS OF THE COMMONWEALTH"

We built the Panama Canal, we said the part of sentimental deck, and made American ships pay as much as foreign ships pay, giving no advantage to our own people.

The British do not do that. With them it is the "British flag, the red ensign."

Fishing by Airplane the Latest

By FRANKLIN COLLIER

Monsignor Supple Dies at Holliston Home

Rt. Rev. Mr. Patrick J. Supple, D. D., pastor of St. John's Church and St. Hugh's Mission both on Blue Hill ave., Roxbury, one of the best known priests in the archdiocese, died today at the family home at Holliston.

Death came at 2:15 a. m. after the priest had been in a coma for the past three days. His sister, Miss Mary B. Supple, and her two brothers, Leo and Dr. Edward A. Supple, Boston physicians, were at the bedside.

He was taken ill after the Rochester Congress at Dublin, but after being removed from the liner and taken to a hospital at Havre, France, he came home and appeared to be improving.

He went to his sister's home in Mechanic st., Holliston, to convalesce and continued to show improvement until Wednesday. At that time he suffered a violent attack and his condition gradually grew worse until the death today.

Mr. Supple was 67 and had been a priest 42 years. He was a native of Holliston and a graduate of the local high school. In 1888 he was graduated from Boston College and was selected by the late Archbishop of Boston.

OFF FOR WAR MANEUVERS

GRADUATED FROM B. C.

They pleaded not guilty in Taunton district court and were held without bail until July 26.

State Detective Clemmey declared his investigation of the slaying had produced evidence which warranted holding both men.

He said the motive behind the slaying lay in Russell's knowledge of the illegal activities of the two. He denied the killing was a revenge slaying for an attack on a girl.

Russell's body was found in the rear of the Mary Wheeler school farm, near St. Albans, N. H. skull fractured and he had been stabbed to the heart and the knife turned around.

Russell served 13½ years in Rhode Island state prison for criminal assault.

TODAY

Continued from First Page.

Navy. That is as intelligent as though our nation wanted to be under divided management of sailing captains and canal boatmen.

Buried dead in the approach that Premier Bennett of Canada made to visiting Britishers who had this about the new Lawrence Canal.

"THIS WATERWAY WILL BE FREE TO ALL SHIPS OF THE COMMONWEALTH"

We built the Panama Canal, we said the part of sentimental deck, and made American ships pay as much as foreign ships pay, giving no advantage to our own people.

The British do not do that. With them it is the "British flag, the red ensign."

FLORIDA PRISON OFFICIALS FACE INDIGMENTS

Governor Pushes Sweeping Probe After Hearing Story of Boy Shot in the Back

Raiford, Fla., July 23 (INS).

A thorough investigation of Florida prison conditions was in full swing today, with a shake-up in its prison inspection service anticipated as a result of the sensational charges of James Dennison, young Philadelphian, that he was shot in the back by a guard at a road camp in January.

Governor Carlton ordered a special investigation of the shooting. The inquiry will be conducted by Commissioner Nathan May, head of the state prison service. He will go to Kennansville, Fla., where Dennison was shot while working in a convict camp.

"I intend to find out if our inspection service is functioning," Governor Carlton told International News Service. "I want to know why our inspectors didn't report Dennison's charges and why we got them through International News Service."

The youth was killed first by five slugs from a shot gun. He charged a guard, Walter Gafford, who walked up to him where he lay helpless and shot him with a pistol.

STORY CONFIRMED.

A physician confirmed the boy's statement that he had been shot twice and that the shot from the slugs smashed a hole in a vest. The physician said it was apparent the shot gun was fired so close to the boy the vest was blown through his leg.

The board of commissioners of state institutions meanwhile made an inquiry into the death of Frank Power, Miami convict, in a restaurant at the prison here three weeks ago. They found Power died of a heart attack after excessive use of alcohol.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

The board also cleared Capt. John F. Baker of charges of brutality toward prisoners at the Sunbeam camp road, where Arthur Mallicote, young New Jersey convict, died after being tortured.

Put in Bank Post

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

Attorney Leopold M. Gouldston, who was appointed by Bank Commissioner Guy today as liquidating agent of the closed Central Trust Co., Cambridge.

REICHSMANN CHIEF SEIZED IN GERMANY

Former Aid to Crown Prince Is Hunted in a New Drive by Von Papen's Forces

By ARNO DOSCH-FLEUBOT
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Berlin, July 23 (INS).—The big guns of Chancellor Franz von Papen's dictatorship found a new target today.

It being that it is determined to wipe out all dangerous elements and paralyze all possible armed resistance, the government launched a campaign against the Reichsbanner, a right-wing paramilitary organization that has opposed the increasing influence of Adolf Hitler's National Socialists.

Robert Breuer, leader of the Reichsbanner forces in Prussia, was arrested on a warrant recently issued which was signed by a warrant for Max Kurt Anker, who was an intelligence officer attached to Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm's headquarters during the war.

VON PAPER "SLANDERED."

But Breuer, however, had apparently received warning and escaped. The police reported they had been unable to trace him. The former major is now regarded as one of the most capable organizers of the Reichsbanner party, which is held responsible for rioting with Nazis at Homburg, in the Rhineland, yesterday.

Breuer and Anker are charged with slandering Chancellor Papen, organizing a rebellion to oust the Reichsbanner from the Reich's defense.

Anker is accused of calling on the Reichsbanner to get revenge on the "traitors" of the Reich, and of intimating that the prosing of a revolt would suffice to raise "red banners" to oust the Reichsbanner from the Reich's defense.

Reichsbanner men were killed and 15 National Socialists and Communists injured in rioting in Rindau last night.

Sailor was saved several weeks ago by a tanker bound for New Orleans. He was clinging to the mast of the ship, when sighted by the tanker's crew.

Mona Thoms Wins Right to Wear Tennis "Shorts"

Chicago, July 23—Mona Thoms, 20, and her chum, Ruth Hunsley, 18, will not be chased from the tennis courts of the University of Chicago by the tennis authorities.

This was the order handed down by the tennis authorities, who had refused to allow the girls to wear "shorts" on the tennis courts.

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

The girls were charged with "indecent exposure" when they were seen on the tennis courts wearing "shorts."

PEOPLE

Who Interest You and What They Are Doing

Mary Pickford Waits Hour to Meet Lord Burghley

Chicago, July 23.—Mary Pickford, film actress, waited an hour in the Dearborn station for an opportunity to meet her old friend, Lord Burghley, British ambassador to the United States.

Pickford, who was traveling with her husband, was five minutes late for the meeting. She was accompanied by her friend, Constance Talmadge.

Lord Burghley, after her reunion with Lord Burghley, Miss Pickford and the Countess flew on to London.

Abandoned Haver Plan to Salvage Off Ascor

Genoa, Italy, July 23.—The abandoned monoplane of Felix Staniak, a Polish aviator, was rescued by a British seaplane in mid-air.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

The plane was seen in mid-air, and the British seaplane attempted to land near it.

BRAZIL ARMIES IN FIERCE FIGHT

Buenos Aires, July 23 (INS).—A fierce battle broke out today between the main armies of Brazilian government troops and the Sao Paulo rebels, according to dispatches received here from the Uruguayan frontier.

The same sources reported President Getulio Vargas had virtually decided to resign, in which event Brazil was expected to be placed under a mixed civil and military government.

Despite precautions, student riots against the minister of education were reported in Rio de Janeiro.

ARMS PARLEY OFF TIL 1933

Geneva, July 23 (INS).—The first session of the World Disarmament Conference ended today with the adoption by a minority session of the resolution to adjourn.

The resolution, which the delegates had rushed to complete during the past few days, was called a "partial" disarmament.

Many of the smaller nations pleaded for inclusion of more points of the Hoover plan for a one-third arms reduction, although the American delegation itself, which helped to draw up the resolution, was satisfied with it as it stood.

$12,000 in Gems Gone After Home Burns

New York, July 23 (AP).—Home insurance at more than $100,000 was missing today from the home of Henry M. Milton, North H. Long Island, following a fire there yesterday. Milton is a member of the firm of Spencer Truck & Co., investment bankers. The fire caused damage estimated at $15,000.

Two Injured As Autoist Dozes

When he dozed at the wheel of his automobile early today, Carl Freedman, of Blue Hill ave., Roxbury, reversed the car into a parked car, injuring himself and a girl companion.

The driver, who told police he felt asleep as the result of a long drive from Boston, was taken to the hospital for treatment.

The girl, who was taken to the hospital, was injured in the crash.

The girl, who was taken to the hospital, was injured in the crash.

The girl, who was taken to the hospital, was injured in the crash.

The girl, who was taken to the hospital, was injured in the crash.

The girl, who was taken to the hospital, was injured in the crash.

The girl, who was taken to the hospital, was injured in the crash.

The girl, who was taken to the hospital, was injured in the crash.

The girl, who was taken to the hospital, was injured in the crash.

2 OFFICERS DIE BY GANG FIRE

Chicago, July 23 (AP).—A suburban police officer was slain by four youths he had arrested for questioning and an employee of the criminal courts building was machine-gunned to death in two outbursts of violence last night.

Three Gary, Ind., youths, one of whom, officers said, admitted shooting Policeman Harold Koehnke of Detroit, were arrested. A fourth was hunted. The officer was slain in a car as he attempted to fight it out when the quartet started shooting.

Jack A. Werner, 24, a chief elevator operator at the Criminal Court building, who bore a deputy sheriff's badge, was killed on a South Side street as he drove with a young girl cousin. A car came alongside, a machine gun chattered death and the killers fled.

The woman fled and was believed to have escaped the bullets. Police asserted the slain man had a criminal record dating to 1912.

CRIPPLE DOG TO GET METAL LEG

In about three weeks, "Blitzen," a German shepherd dog, owned by Oliver Whitcomb of New Town rd., Littleton, will be unique as the only dog in the world with an aluminum leg.

Blitzen got into an argument with a mowing machine and came out with the lower part of his left hind leg missing.

His master took him to the Angell Memorial Hospital, where Dr. Hugh P. Daily, who amputated the mangled leg, as soon as the wound was sufficiently healed, an aluminum frame with a leather covering will replace the missing joint.

"Blitzen" will be almost as

BLOODY PRINTS REVEAL ASSASSIN OF REYNOLDS

WOMEN WHO HAVE BEEN IN LIFE OF SUING STAR

CHEVALIER'S ACTRESS WIFE WON'T BE SHELVED

MARKS THOSE OF PERSON IN HEIR'S HOME

New Clues in the Slaying to Be Given Grand Jury Monday; More Witnesses Found

Winston-Salem, N. C., July 23 (INS).—The mysterious death of Zachary Smith Reynolds, who had youth and an inheritance of $15,000,000 to live for, was ready to be forwarded to the grand jury Monday.

With important new evidence gathered, Sheriff Trussard Scott was assembling his data today with the firm expectation that the grand jury would investigate the case shortly after it convenes.

PRINTS ARE CLUE
The sheriff returned from a trip to Roanoke, Va., where he conferred with Robert C. Johnson, chief of the Identification Bureau there, regarding the bloody fingerprints found on the door of the bathroom leading from the bedroom of young Reynolds and Mrs. Libby Holman Reynolds.

International News Service learned that Johnson declared that the bloody fingerprints were the same as those of one of the persons in the household at the time of the shooting.

NEW WITNESSES
Considerable new facts have been revealed. Among this new evidence for the grand jury are the statements, other than those already heard at the inquest.

These witnesses contradicted the testimony of certain persons present at the party in the belated Reynolds home which preceded the tragedy.

The door containing the fingerprints may also prove a silent witness before the grand jury.

Fiedler's Orchestra Takes Up Whistling
Arthur Fiedler's Bostonian concert orchestra added another accomplishment to its list last night when they whistled. They whistled tunelessly, cheerfully, gayly. More than 7000 attended.

HIS LAST PHOTO WITH HIS WIFE
Maurice Chevalier, the moving picture star, and the wife he seeks to divorce in a Paris suit, but who says she will not give him up. She is Yvonne Vallee, French actress. This photo was made when they were still in love.

ACTRESSSES WHO "INTERESTED" HIM
Irene Bordoni, the French actress, interested Chevalier and his name was linked with hers in an affair, and (top inset) Jeannette MacDonald, who played in many of his successes. (International News Photos.)

THEIR LEGS VALUED AT $2,000,000
Mistinguett, "the French girl with the $1,000,000 legs," and, lower right, Marlene Dietrich, whose legs are valued at $1,000,000, were both said to have won his heart.

IRISH TARIFF BILL SIGNED

Dublin, July 23 (INS).—The Governor-General today signed the emergency tariff bill directed at Great Britain as a reprisal against new high duties on Irish imports, and the opening gun of the long-threatened Anglo-Irish economic war was made ready to fire.

No, Says Norma Talmadge to Jessel's Wedding Claim

Hollywood, July 23 (AP).—Although he seems quite sure he will eventually marry Norma Talmadge, former screen star, George Jessel, comedian, lacks public confirmation from the actress.
"Of course, we're in love," said Jessel on his arrival here last night by airplane from Ft. Worth, Tex. He added he expected to marry Miss Talmadge as soon as both have severed their present marital ties.
So soon had Jessel made his statement, a reiteration of previous ones, that two men popped out of Miss Talmadge's auto and escorted Jessel to the machine where the actress was waiting for him.
Miss Talmadge, in a rush of words, was heard to say:
"Strictly business... of course, we're not in love... just a plain business proposition... we're just going to make a personal appearance together."

Boston Woman to Attend Law Parley

Miss Helen B. Kelleher has sailed from New York for Annapolis to attend the International Congress of Comparative Law at the stage as representative of the Boston Bar Association. She recently received her degree as doctor of civil law from National University, Washington.

Buddhists Open Meet
San Francisco, July 23 (UP).—The first Buddhist convention ever held in America opened here.

THIEVES STEAL EGGS AND GEMS

Loot ranging from a half a case of eggs and a child's birthday gift to diamond rings and cash was stolen today in three breaks in Revere.
During the absence of the family at the home of Mrs. Alexander Rossett, 13 Newman st., a rear window was forced and the house ransacked. Two diamond rings, a string of pearl beads, pistol, a $10 bill, old coins and a wrist watch were taken.
At a filling station at 908 Broadway the glass of the front door was broken and $50 was taken from a small safe.
Mrs. Jacob Goldberg discovered the disappearance of the eggs when she opened her store at 525 Revere st.

Doolittle to Fly Over City Monday on P.O. Birthday

Weather permitting, Maj. James H. Doolittle will be over Boston at approximately 5:30 a. m. Monday on his dawn-to-dusk flight in celebration of the 157th anniversary of the founding of the United States postal system. Mail he carries for Boston will be dropped from his plane over Boston Airport. He expects to cover 300 miles, starting from Kittery, Me. and flying over a route covered by George Washington in his travels. If poor weather conditions prevail Monday, the flight will be made on Tuesday.

Smith Aid's Wife Dies
Hartford, July 23 (AP).—Mrs. Nellie Spillacy, wife of Thomas J. Spillacy, Connecticut leader of Alfred R. Smith's pre-convention campaign, died today.

HEADQUARTERS POLICE LACK SUNDAY CASH

Paymaster Fails to Arrive With the Belated Roll and Hultman Stays in Duxbury

Sunday dinners for families of many police officers, detectives, clerks and officials at police headquarters faded somewhat today when the headquarters men went again without their pay.

Yesterday, their regular pay day, the paymaster did not appear because Commissioner Hultman had left his signing of the payroll slip until too late.

The men had expected the money today instead, but word was sent from the paymaster's office at City Hall that he would not be present at headquarters until Monday.

Superior officers who had spare cash loaned it to the men who were "broke," but this did not go far and the majority of the headquarters men mumbled they were high and dry with a prospect of cleaning out the box and dining their families on left-overs until Monday.

Commissioner Hultman was so worried over the whole affair that he did not appear at headquarters today, the presumption being that he is enjoying his usual week-end at Duxbury—with a plentifully-stockedarder.

WHEEL NOT GEEF, UP MAUREEGE, SHE DECLARES

Mar Charges Incompatibility and Desertion; Mate Files Counter Suit in Paris

Paris, July 23.—Maurice Chevalier, smiling, straw-haired, long plunger of Paris music-halls, who was carried to world fame on the crest of the first Hollywood talking-picture wave, has reached the end of the marital trail with his wife, Yvonne Vallee.

Chevalier, appearing in the Palais de Justice with his attorney, filed suit for divorce, charging incompatibility and desertion. His wife, a musical comedy actress, brought counter-suit and revealed she would not give up Maurice of the movies.

As quietly as ever, as timidly as ever, but as firmly as ever, she announced today:

WANTS HER MAN
"I want not get them up. I want fight case. I want make sure had for them."

More Mme. Chevalier would not say about the man whose name is synonymous with "The Love Parade" and "Love Me Tonight" all over the world. She returned into the recesses of her Montmartre apartment—the "Seventh Heaven" setting which evokes the champagne-and-caviar area where she and Maurice got their start hooding.

STARTED 15 YEARS AGO
That was, of course, 15 years ago and before the days when, with a straw hat for a crown and an imitable smile for a sword, Maurice pranced into fame. And it was long before he was important enough to have his name linked with a bevy of beauties—a bevy that includes Irene Bordoni, Legs Dietrich and Jeannette MacDonald, who played with him in his heaviest loving films.

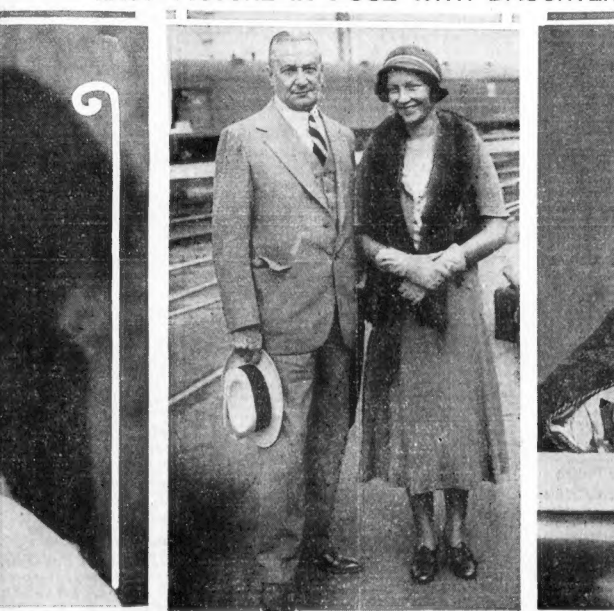

It was, too, before the ever-loving Chevalier numbered among his closest friends Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks, her arch-enemy husband.
Chevalier was his beautiful, rakish.

Continued on Page 8, Column 2

STAGE MOURNS WITH HER

LAST PICTURE IN POSE WITH DAUGHTER

DEATH CAUSED BY STROKE

NOTED COUPLE OF STAGELAND PARTED BY SUDDEN DEATH
Mrs. Florenz Ziegfeld, the former Billie Burke, whose husband, famous producer of Broadway's "Follies" and other star attractions of stageland, died suddenly in Los Angeles early today. She was at a moving picture studio when she received word of a turn for the worse in his illness and rushed to the hospital, arriving at his bedside two minutes after he died. (Photo by Ralston, Burton, Durnstone & Osborn, Inc., New York.)

JUST BEFORE FATAL ILLNESS LAID HIM LOW
One of the last pictures of Florenz Ziegfeld, producer of the "Follies" that bore his name, was taken in Los Angeles when he posed with his daughter, Patricia, 16 years old, a few days before he was stricken by the illness that killed him. "Flo and Pat," in the language of the day, were "great pals."

PLEURISY ATTACK FOLLOWING PNEUMONIA IS FATAL
Florenz Ziegfeld, "Glorifier of the American Girl" in elaborate theatrical productions, who died early today in a Los Angeles hospital after several days' illness of pleurisy contracted in a relapse while apparently recovering from pneumonia. Ziegfeld was 64 years old, began his career in a circus and became world famous by his "Follies" and other stage shows presenting American beauties. (International News Photos.)

"4-If your house is robbed, do not make the fact public. It isn't fair to the bandits and might cause householders to take steps

ZIEGFELD'S GIRLS WOULD FADE BY THEIR ANKLES

By JANE EADS

New York, July 23 (AP)—In meeting beautiful girls for "glorification" in his productions, Florenz Ziegfeld looked first at their ankles, and then at their faces.

The ankles, he explained, once are on a level with the eyes of the audience. If they were not perfect, the first impression would be ruined.

Unlike many other producers of "girl shows" Ziegfeld would often make his selections without even looking at applicants' legs above the ankles.

"It's unnecessary," he explained. "The circumference of the calf is always the same as the circumference of the neck. If you look at the ankle and then the neck you know just what the leg is like."

Edward Sobel, the producer's press agent for more than ten years, said that within the last year Ziegfeld insisted on intelligence as a qualification.

"This was only to ward off the herds of simpatons who came to him seeking employment," he said. "The Ziegfeld girl never looked intelligent and Ziegfeld never used to make a point of it, because he instinctively he selected the ankles."

Ziegfeld Created Many Stage Stars

New York, July 23 (AP)—The long list of stage personages either introduced or developed by Florenz Ziegfeld included:

Will Rogers.
Lena Horne.
Marilyn Miller.
Bert Williams.
Jack Donaghy, now dead.
W. C. Fields.
Marie Dressler.
Lillian Tashman.
Doris Fenn.
Ann Pennington.
Ina Claire.
Perry Hopkins Joyce.
Joanne Johnston.
Lillian Lorraine.
Marie Dressler.
Edna Cantor.
Mollie Morgan.
Doris Fenn.
Bert Williams.
Olive Thomas, now dead.
The above names are in his productions.

The typical Ziegfeld girl is tall, slender, with long legs, and a perfect figure and accent. Ziegfeld selected girls on the basis of their ankles, and then their faces.

"The typical Ziegfeld girl is tall, slender, with long legs, and a perfect figure and accent. Ziegfeld selected girls on the basis of their ankles, and then their faces."

Death Kept From Ziegfeld's Mother

Chicago, July 23 (INS)—For two weeks the shock was great to her, news of the death of Florenz Ziegfeld was withheld from his aged mother, Mrs. Rosalie Ziegfeld.

Mrs. Ziegfeld, 81, was in bed in her modest little home here, seriously ill.

Clayton Ziegfeld, a daughter-in-law of the sick woman, said she was informed of the producer's death early today by a long distance telephone call from Ziegfeld's sister, Mrs. Willis Burt, in Detroit.

a personal preference for blondes, the showman always selected various types of beauty because he knew the preferences of the audience would be varied. He was one of the first to use the platinum blonde.

Last May, Ziegfeld listed the names of those he believed the ten most beautiful women in the world. They were Gladys Clair, Marion Davies, Billie Burke, Ellen Langford, Greta Garbo, Joan Crawford, Grace Moore, Jean Harlow, Evelyn Laye and Betty Miller.

DEAD RECLUSE LEFT $15,000

George B. Edwards Jr., retired major of Grand Army hall in Wakefield, who lived frugally in one room, left a fortune of $15,000, it was revealed today.

Searching his room for clues to whereabouts of Edwards' divorced wife and daughter, police found the money in a strongbox.

The aged man died Tuesday night on a train from Boston as he was entering Wakefield station. He was 81 years old.

Mr. Edwards left a son, Walter W. Edwards Jr., in his will. His wife and daughter were believed to be in Maine.

Search is continuing for a will. Edwards left out a small store in Wakefield years ago and later took out as a junior. His will was known, but was considered poor even by his closest friends.

STARS THE WORLD OVER MOURN PASSING OF ZIEGFELD

Good Fortune Made Them Beauties

Continued from First Page.

New York last winter, his heart desisted him and the struggle was lost.

Billie Burke was not the only one of Ziegfeld's stars who lost her battle to the disease. Her death was too late for a last farewell.

There was Patricia, his 20-year-old daughter. She, too, died in an automobile to the hospital and arrived after death had come. It was not until 30 minutes after her death that she was pronounced dead. Ziegfeld had breathed his last at the daughter of whom he was passionately fond.

Seeing that his father was dead, Patricia broke down in a convulsion of nearly uncontrolable grief.

FUNERAL NOT PLANNED

Mother and daughter, clinging to each other in their sorrow, were led from the room by attendants. Their grief was too deep today to allow of thoughts of funeral plans, so burial arrangements were held in abeyance. It was surmised that Ziegfeld's body may be returned to New York, where he achieved his greatest triumphs.

In the modern little hospital where the end came were only Ziegfeld's physician, Dr. Marcus Tiedman, and a nurse.

His wife was working on a picture at a film studio when she was summoned to the telephone and informed her husband was sinking rapidly.

Not hesitating to even don a wig, Mrs. Burke hurried by automobile to the hospital.

Only a few days ago she had arranged to have Ziegfeld transferred from a sanitarium in New Mexico, where he had been for several weeks.

When the producer was conveyed to the hospital, his condition became grave, but during the next three days he had shown improvement.

HIS FAMOUS SHOWS

Beginning with the historic Chicago World's Fair of 1893, Ziegfeld's career spanned an entire generation of theatergoers who thrilled to his spectacular musical shows.

He was born in Chicago on March 21, 1868. In his native city he embarked on his life-long work as a showman in 1892. His first professional feat was bringing of the European musical bands to Chicago to perform at the World's Fair.

During the fair he organized and managed the universally famous Trolley Car.

It was 25 years ago that he contributed to the American stage that combination of gaiety, song and dancing known as "The Follies." Every year since that time he has produced a new show on the boards, a veritable criterion for all other revues of the stage.

Among the stage productions Ziegfeld produced were "Show Boat," "Rio Rita," "The Girl from Rio," "Bally," "Louie the Fourth," "Kid Boots" and "Hot Ch." "The Girl from Rio," "Bally," "Louie the Fourth," "Kid Boots" and "Hot Ch."

Miss Burke was his second wife. She married Ziegfeld in 1918. His first wife was Anna Held, the famous French actress.

Bail for Shooter of Husband Is Cut

Bail for Mrs. Theresa M. Scarvo, 45, of Field st., Quincy, who allegedly shot and wounded her husband, was reduced from $15,000 to $3,000 today in Quincy court.

Peter Scarvo, 52, told Judge Avery he was afraid of his wife, but considered her a "mental case." Judge Avery cut the case over to Sept. 1.

A STAR ZIEGFELD 'FOUND'

Never spared expense, Ziegfeld was a grand spender. Across the continent, in search of new beauty to glorify, he traveled in private cars, munching bronzed polka from the pockets of $200 suits. He took his own chef with him. His motor cars were imported. He argued with critics by "telegram" — thousands upon thousands of words.

"Don't spare the expense," seemed to be his motto.

Publicity was a thing he never lacked. When Marilyn Miller, a woman then glowing in tall hair, was the star of "Bally," announced she was quitting Ziegfeld, there was a great lull. She was back under his wing later.

Once he said that gentlemen prefer brunettes and 20 blond models of his revue voted to strike unless he was re-elected. In 1928 he was elected to a second term. He was re-elected to a second term. He was re-elected to a second term.

With the next regular town meeting scheduled for August 3, employees face the possibility of receiving no wages until after that date.

Persons listed for aid from the welfare fund have not obtained any relief for seven weeks.

Selection Edward Callahan today issued a notice to all town employees to attend the selectmen's meeting next Monday night to voice their protest.

BILLIE DOVE
Noted beauty of the films, who was "Ziegfeld girl"—one of the many he "discovered."

GILDA GRAY
Famous dancer whom Ziegfeld first "discovered" and starred in his productions.

JACQUELINE LOGAN
A girl in whom Ziegfeld gave her first "discovery" and starred in his productions.

CLAIRE LUCE
Her beauty instantly won Ziegfeld's eye and he gave her her big chance at success.

LENA BASQUETTE
One of the girls whom Ziegfeld put on the road to stage and screen success.

IRENE DINN
A "Ziegfeld girl" who won her greatest success in the picture "Cimarron."

RUTH ETTING
One of the girls Ziegfeld "glorified," now a famous crooner.

MAE MURRAY
Famous wide-screen actress, who was one of Ziegfeld's "Follies" girls until she went into the movies.

DOROTHY MACKAIL
This film actress got her start on the stage in Ziegfeld's productions—then climbed to stardom.

LUPE VALEZ
Noted Mexican star whom Ziegfeld "discovered" in "Hot Ch."

'TOO BAD ZIEGFELD HAD TO DIE BROKE'

New York, July 23 (AP)—Broadway, where sentiment and hard cash are twin kings, shook its head sadly today over Florenz Ziegfeld's death, and said:

"Isn't it too bad he had to die broke?"

For the impression along the lanes of gossip and flitter in the Grand Gloster, who garnered millions, only to find them forlorn in new ventures, was virtually a poor man.

He might, bright lady, have tucked away some insurance against the day when beauty and glamorous stagecraft should encounter a resistance—but that was probably all.

Ziegfeld, who turned thumbs down on audacity half a dozen years ago, and announced his vendetta against the "showboat" and the "glorified" girl, was a man who had to die broke.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it. He said no one could define it.

Carroll Challenge Is Met by Ziegfeld

New York, July 23 (AP)—The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

The challenge of the "Follies" to the "Follies" was met by Ziegfeld's "Follies" today.

Two Rivals

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Two other names came quickly to mind—Earl Carroll and George White. Both were rivals of Ziegfeld's.

Points Way; Comes Out $14 Short

The next time William J. McCormack, 28, of Spencer ave., Somerville, directs an inquiring motorist anywhere it will be in the direction of brimstone and fire.

He was walking in Common st., Charlestown, early today when two youths in a car ran him the direction of Bedford st.

He stepped over to the running board and gave up $14 and a gold fountain pen and pencil.

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Points Way; Comes Out $14 Short

The next time William J. McCormack, 28, of Spencer ave., Somerville, directs an inquiring motorist anywhere it will be in the direction of brimstone and fire.

He was walking in Common st., Charlestown, early today when two youths in a car ran him the direction of Bedford st.

He stepped over to the running board and gave up $14 and a gold fountain pen and pencil.

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Points Way; Comes Out $14 Short

The next time William J. McCormack, 28, of Spencer ave., Somerville, directs an inquiring motorist anywhere it will be in the direction of brimstone and fire.

He was walking in Common st., Charlestown, early today when two youths in a car ran him the direction of Bedford st.

He stepped over to the running board and gave up $14 and a gold fountain pen and pencil.

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

Occasionally he would advertise for beauties—sometimes hand out a word of advice. Once he warned against over-indulgence in sport, as tending to destroy "a delicate degree of softness in face and figure."

Every one agreed that his influence on the American stage was great. He was considered a master of decoration, of costume, and presentation in the grand style. The theater world is dotted with stars who got their start in Ziegfeld's "Follies."

FANNING

Devonshire Park Results				Arlington Park Results
FIRST RACE				FIRST RACE
Wicket (Leger)	4.40	3.10	2.50	War Glay (E. E. Allen)	14.00	8.25	4.75
Box Squasher (Avery)		4.10	3.50	Roxy Maureen (P. J. M.)		6.42	3.25
Wicket (Leger)		4.40	3.10	Seven Vols (Steffen)			4.60
ALSO RAN—Liz Ray, Darkford,				ALSO RAN—Arab, Flying Hero, Or
Hydrex, Calgary Ray, Fair Charter,				Mr. Canning, Oatsky.
Unstoppable, (Pa. Avast, Don Alvarez,
Mittens. (Self.)

[illegible]

The bout was a feature of the Hingham American Legion Post charity field day.

Johany Allen, equalled his average by winning eight games and losing two.

The bout was a feature of the Hingham American Legion Post charity field day.

SPORTS

Awards Await Skilful Big Innings Fans

Award winners, front and center!
Another week of the Boston American's Big Inning contest of skill comes to a finish. There remains but the pleasant task of issuing checks to the winners.
How did your estimate compare with the final result this week? You may be one of the successful competitors for this week.

SCORES BY INNINGS OF ALL BIG LEAGUE GAMES FRIDAY

AM. LEAGUE	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	E	R
Philadelphia	1	0	2	0	0	2	3	0	0				8	10
Washington	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0				4	10
NAT. LEAGUE
Brooklyn	0	1	2	0	0	0	0	0	0				5	9
Chicago	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0				1	10
Pittsburgh	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	2				3	10
Philadelphia	1	2	0	1	1	2	0	0	0				9	20
TOTALS	3	6	6	2	3	7	3	0	0				30	74

HIGH INNINGS

Saturday	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
6	8	6	7	7	1	7

(Big Innings Game completed in its entirety, 1932, by T. A. Robertson, All rights reserved.)

A. L. FETE ON CRICKET TOP TEAMS CLASH

The Massachusetts Department of the American Legion will hold a sports carnival at Rockingham Park, Salem, N. H., next Friday and Saturday.

One of the features will be the all New England horse show with more than 60 classes, for ponies, in riding competition, for combination horses, for saddle horses, road hacks, hunters and jumpers and hunter hacks.

On the horse show committee are: Governor Alvan T. Fuller, Hon. Leverett Saltonstall, William J. McDonald, Allen J. Wilson, Louis K. Lippert, Dr. Frederick L. Good, Dr. P. F. Ferguson, Thomas F. Walsh, John S. Woodbury and Capt. Richard Anthony.

Light harness races in 12 classes also will be held. Henry Ryan is the committee head. Saddle, harness and marbles, now in the hospitals, will benefit from the money to be obtained for the welfare fund.

B. S. A. Enters Stars in Revere Meet

The Boston Swimming Association is entering many of its former star competitors in the first meet in the Nautical Pool, Revere, Friday evening, August 5.

In the 30-meter medley title race the B. S. A. entries will be Mary M. Doherty, Dorothy Jones and Dorothy Jones.

Margaret Lynch and Evelyn La Crosse will compete in the 200-yard breaststroke and Mary Sadownski will be in the 100-yard freestyle. Nine B. S. A. girls race in the 400-yard freestyle handicap—Gus Schenckel, Lillian Davis, Irene Davis, Rita McCarthy, Katherine Lynch, Edna Wenne, Dorothy Jones, Dorothy Jones and Dorothy Jones.

Katie for the meet close up by H. Bradlee Fenn, 60 State st.

Junior in Scotch Mixed Foursomes

One of the most interesting and novel tournaments ever staged locally was the Junior Scotch mixed foursomes which were held yesterday at the Matherly Country Club.

There were about 20 teams in this tournament and Patricia McFarland and Francis Galvin captured the first prize prize with their 41. The next went to Joan Fitzsimmons and William James. The winners of 47-47 were Virginia Grim and Richard Everett took the 3rd and 4th of 48-48.

Baseball Note in Brief

American League
STANDING JULY 23, 1932
W. L. P. C. O. B.
1—New York . . . 35 19 .81
2—Philadelphia . . . 33 24 .58
3—Cleveland . . . 33 24 .58
4—Washington . . . 32 24 .57
5—Detroit . . . 31 25 .55
6—St. Louis . . . 30 26 .53
7—Chicago . . . 29 27 .51
8—Boston . . . 27 31 .46
*Standing July 23, 1932.
*Games behind leaders.

National League
STANDING JULY 23, 1932
W. L. P. C. O. B.
1—Philadelphia . . . 31 20 .61
2—Cleveland . . . 28 23 .55
3—Boston . . . 27 24 .53
4—Pittsburgh . . . 27 24 .53
5—St. Louis . . . 26 25 .51
6—New York . . . 25 26 .49
7—Cincinnati . . . 24 27 .47
8—Detroit . . . 23 28 .45
*Standing July 23, 1932.
*Games behind leaders.

GAMES TODAY
Boston at New York.
Philadelphia at Washington.
Cleveland at Chicago.
Detroit at St. Louis.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RESULTS
At Washington: R. H. E.
Phil. 1 2 0 0 0 2 3 0 1 0
Wash. 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1
Catterer—Walberg and Corbrey.
Batters—Machery, Brown and Berg. Man.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RESULTS
At Philadelphia: R. H. E.
Brooklyn 2 1 0 0 0 2 0 0 1
Batteries—Riggs and V. Davis.
Thurston, Quinn and Sukeroff.
At Pittsburgh: R. H. E.
Brooklyn 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Pittsburgh 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0
Batteries—Sweeney and Grace.
Malone, May and Hartnett.
New York at Boston, postponed.

SKIPPY-HOT DOGS

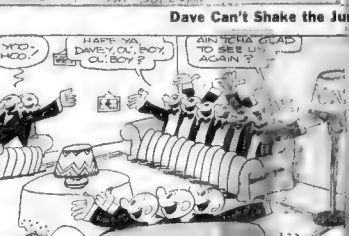

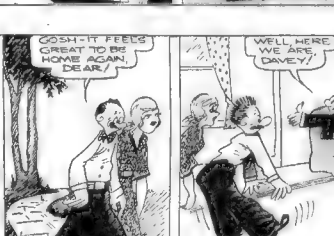

BLONDIE

FELIX THE CAT

DAVE'S DELICATESSEN

Runs for the Week

From July 17 to July 23

AMERICAN LEAGUE	W. L. P. C. O. B.
1—New York . . . 35 19 .81
2—Philadelphia . . . 33 24 .58
3—Cleveland . . . 33 24 .58
4—Washington . . . 32 24 .57
5—Detroit . . . 31 25 .55
6—St. Louis . . . 30 26 .53
7—Chicago . . . 29 27 .51
8—Boston . . . 27 31 .46

NATIONAL LEAGUE

W. L. P. C. O. B.
1—Philadelphia . . . 31 20 .61
2—Cleveland . . . 28 23 .55
3—Boston . . . 27 24 .53
4—Pittsburgh . . . 27 24 .53
5—St. Louis . . . 26 25 .51
6—New York . . . 25 26 .49
7—Cincinnati . . . 24 27 .47
8—Detroit . . . 23 28 .45

CHILD MARRIAGE MANAGE IN U. S.

By RUTH MOUGLAREY
(This is the clearest of the series of stories on charity work.)
Four recent cases of child marriage in the United States have been called to the attention of the welfare department.

Two cases involved drunkards whose wives were married to them in the welfare department. The first was a case of a woman named Mary, who was married to a man named John, who was a drunkard.

The second was a case of a woman named Mary, who was married to a man named John, who was a drunkard. The third was a case of a woman named Mary, who was married to a man named John, who was a drunkard.

The fourth was a case of a woman named Mary, who was married to a man named John, who was a drunkard. The fifth was a case of a woman named Mary, who was married to a man named John, who was a drunkard.

Have You a Little Screechaboo in Your Home?

There is an animal in the house that is not a cat, dog, or rabbit. It is a screechaboo. It is a small, furry animal that is found in the house. It is a screechaboo. It is a small, furry animal that is found in the house. It is a screechaboo. It is a small, furry animal that is found in the house.

WIFE HAD JOB

Further questioning elicited the information that the wife was steadily employed, although he was not. But then came the question, "If he had been a woman, how was he getting on?"

The officer declared the man would not come back to work. The officer declared the man would not come back to work. The officer declared the man would not come back to work.

Cambridge Tunnel Trains Cut Down

Boston Elevated Transit operating on the Cambridge-Dorchester rapid transit system in the city have been reduced from seven cars to two cars during the month of July and August falling off in travel.

During "normal hours" between 7:30 a. m. and 6:30 p. m., there will be two cars in each direction. Outside of these hours, there will be one car in each direction.

But the person in the car will not be able to get on. But the person in the car will not be able to get on. But the person in the car will not be able to get on.

Roosvelt Undecided on Connecticut Trip

When and if Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic presidential nominee, will come to Connecticut during his campaign was still apparently unsettled today.

James A. Farley, Roosevelt's campaign finance marshal, had a few minutes' conference with National Committee Chairman Archibald McMillen, Jr. here yesterday afternoon, but neither would say when the governor might visit the State.

CHAS. E. YOUNG, EDITOR, DIES

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER
Charles E. Young, assistant manager of the Boston Post and a well-known newspaper editor, died today.

Only a few hours before the editorial staff of the Boston Post was called to drop into the office of the Post and write some routine matter. He had played a part in the newspaper and had a good record.

Mr. Young was born in 1872 in the town of New Bedford, Mass. He was educated in the Boston schools and had a good record.

Mr. Young was a member of the Boston Press Club and the Boston Journal Club. He was a member of the Boston Press Club and the Boston Journal Club.

Mr. Young was a member of the Boston Press Club and the Boston Journal Club. He was a member of the Boston Press Club and the Boston Journal Club.

Leicester Broke

Leicester, July 23.—Town Treasurer Walter Walker, 111 Main st., here today announced that the town of Leicester had broken the record for the number of people who had been arrested for drinking.

Walker said that the town of Leicester had broken the record for the number of people who had been arrested for drinking. Walker said that the town of Leicester had broken the record for the number of people who had been arrested for drinking.

Walker said that the town of Leicester had broken the record for the number of people who had been arrested for drinking. Walker said that the town of Leicester had broken the record for the number of people who had been arrested for drinking.

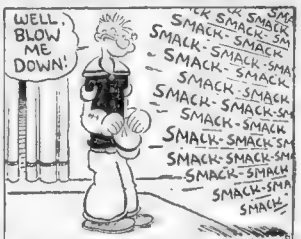

By Winifred Black

Not by a long way. My child is my baby, and I am letting her develop her own perfect personality. My child is my baby, and I am letting her develop her own perfect personality. My child is my baby, and I am letting her develop her own perfect personality.

Continued From Yesterday

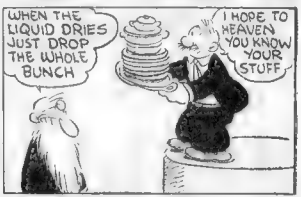

Copyright, 1932, by International Magasine Co., Inc.

*An Exclusive Feature Every Saturday
In the BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN*

AND THEN THE BIG SAD COULDN'T GET IT BACK TOGETHER AGAIN.

YAH-HAW HAW!

Another Popeye Knockout in Next Saturday's Boston Evening American---Don't Fail to Get It!

COOK-COOS

By TED COOK

Minneapolis grand jury has discovered that twenty bootleggers have been getting city relief support. That's fair enough. The bootleggers relieved the citizens—when a citizen has it.

Similar—Contemptuous as a bell hop's acknowledgment of a ten-cent tip.

The suit who must get in by ten and sit at a table with every man.

Says Genevieve, the kitchen eye—

"A man is known by the company he keeps out of his house."

AMERICA'S FINEST

Another athlete trekking to Los Angeles filled with good old American pep and the will to win.

In a fight with a "Tough" Sluggo, head man of the U. S. Marine School of Marine Training.

Although he has U. S. medals, Harry Up is credited with a unofficial record of ten weeks.

stood without moving a muscle except to inquire of a passerby whether or not today was Tuesday.

MRS. LILLIE FLORE

Have You Been Knocking the Women's Cornet Band?

(From the Link, Mo. News)
For the benefit of those who are interested to know just what the Kitchen Band does with their money. This question has been asked several times and we wish to state, that heretofore, the band turned every cent into the treasury of the Cornet Band School Mothers' Club. Recently, the band decided to establish a treasury for themselves since they were getting down to "brass tacks" and making a success of their talent.

If at any time, a reasonable statement is presented, the Kitchen Band has never been known to be "Slackers" in regards to anything concerning the Cornet Band School.
Although the band has been quoted as being unable to play, we realize that every knock is a hurt, and these howling knucks make the general public more curious to find out just what this "Bum Band" can do. I, as their piano player, can truthfully say "The Band knows their instruments." So here's hoping we receive more knucks, which means notoriety in our band.

MRS. LILLIE FLORE

Q. and A. DEPARTMENT

Dear Aunt Bella—
Could you give me the time?
—Anclous

Monkeys who feel called upon to stand in guile and jokes to Aunt Bella should try to think up gags what wasn't being used to cheer on the Confederate Army and away Auntie's wish is at the Jeweler's.

Hot stuff, 1927.
You ask: "What did they call them things during the war that went over trenches and thru barbed wire?"
He says: "Tanks."
You say: "You're welcome."

Adam Scottlaw's Journal

It being my purpose to give my poor wife a greater sense of knowledge in fifteen minutes by the clock each day, I did suffer her to repeat after me those words in which we do now arrive at an discussion of mammals, or ordinary wall paper and, which breathes atmospheric air and when treated kindly will rival the dog or canine, in sagacity and affection for the master, which is more than can be said for some people of the human race.

BULL-ONEY

To the general pub. I desire to have no greater importance than the smallest cameraman on my lot. —Harry Cohn, president of Columbia Motion Picture Studios.

And the gal who marries for money usually gets a divorce for the same reason.

MAKES IT UNANIMOUS
Parents of child artists in distress. B. 06341

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS

Jockey Club or Black Narcissus—
And that goes for you, Mister Gulliver.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

Similar—
Liberally as an automatic elevator.

THIMBLE THEATRE, starring POPEYE

I'M YOUNGER! THE FACT THAT YOU GOT ROOMS THIS SHIP—THEY'RE TROUBLE FOR AROUND—YOU GALS WILL BE SORRY YA EVER SEEN THIS SHIP!

GET TO YER CABINS AN' STOP CHEWING THE FAT—THEY'RE TROUBLE FOR AROUND—YOU GALS WILL BE SORRY YA EVER SEEN THIS SHIP!

I'VE GOT A CREW OF OL' TIME SAILOR MEN—AN' THEY KNOWS THE SAME AS I DO THAT WIMMIN' ON A BIG SAILIN' VESSEL IS BAD LUCK!

WHERE'S THEM DAMES?

LOCK YER DOORS—I'LL DO ME BEST TO STOP 'EM!

THEY'RE BAD LUCK ON THIS SHIP, SKIPPER! THROW THEM GALS TO THE GALS FISHES!

YA IGNORANT SWABES! DONT YA KNOW THAT ALL YA GOT TO DO TO DRIVE THE EVIL SPIRITS AWAY FROM THIS SHIP IS KILL A CHICKEN AN' LET THE BLEED DRIP OVER THE PORT RAIL—I'M SURPRIZED AT YA!

GO BELOW OR I'LL SMACK YA FORE AN' AFT!

BRINGING UP FATHER

NOW LISTEN, BOYS—I'VE GOT TO BE ELECTED MAYOR OF THIS CITY.

WE'RE FOR YOU, JIGGS!

SAY, BO—WE WON'T DESERT YOUSE FER THE WORLD.

HEY, BOYS! MISS LOTTA VOTES, THE DAME THAT'S RUNNIN' FER MAYOR, IS PASSIN'—

GEES! SHE'S A SWEET LOOKER!

OH, BOY—

I'VE GOT A LOT OF LOYAL SUPPORTERS!

His Loyal Supporters

POLLY AND HER PALS

BA—BES ASH?

THEM WAS HIS VERY WORDS GAL.

DO YOU REALIZE THAT ASHUR URL PERKINS IS A LOW-GRADE MORON?

PUFFICALLY POLLY!

AND YET YOU ENVY HIM?

I DOES, DAUGHTER!

I ENVY ANYTHING THAT'S SO DUMB, IT CAN'T EVEN KETCH POISON-IVY!

BEWARE POISON-IVY!

Hired Help

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

7 GALS, NANCY—I'M ALL EXCITED—JIM WONG, THE COOK, IS GOING LET ME WASH MY FACE.

HIM—HE SAID HE WAS GONNA GIVE ME AN AN'FUL HARD JOB—BUT HIS EYES WAS LAUGHIN' WHEN HE SAID IT!

BOSS, HIM SAY—JIM WONG, LIKE AS NO GOOD—NO LIKE AS A CAKE—SAY IT VELL! PUNK—NO CAN ENT!

FREE I THOUGHT YOUR CAKE WAS SWEET!

YOU WORK FOR ME NOW—ME YOOKEE NO GOOD—NO BY IN BY YOU COME BACK—ME HAVE JOB FOR YOU—WHEN CAKE ALL DONE.

YOUR JOB TASTE CAMEE—YOU LIKE EM—BIG BOSS HE LIKE EM—I—YOU NO LIKE EM—JIM WONG—THROW CAKE AWAY!

DARRELL RECAPURE

BARNEY GOOGL

THEM RINGSIDE SEATS COST $50 APECS—I PUT $50 DOWN ON 'EM AN' I GOT $1.00 IN THE 678 NATIONAL BANK—AND I GOT $1.00 FOR WATCHIN' A GUY'S CAR—THAT LEAVES $49.00 TO FORK OVER TO THE BOX OFFICE—

1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc. 8700 British d'gts. owned.

THIMBLE THEATRE, starring POPEYE

I'M YOUNGER! THE FACT THAT YOU GOT ROOMS THIS SHIP—THEY'RE TROUBLE FOR AROUND—YOU GALS WILL BE SORRY YA EVER SEEN THIS SHIP!

GET TO YER CABINS AN' STOP CHEWING THE FAT—THEY'RE TROUBLE FOR AROUND—YOU GALS WILL BE SORRY YA EVER SEEN THIS SHIP!

I'VE GOT A CREW OF OL' TIME SAILOR MEN—AN' THEY KNOWS THE SAME AS I DO THAT WIMMIN' ON A BIG SAILIN' VESSEL IS BAD LUCK!

WHERE'S THEM DAMES?

LOCK YER DOORS—I'LL DO ME BEST TO STOP 'EM!

THEY'RE BAD LUCK ON THIS SHIP, SKIPPER! THROW THEM GALS TO THE GALS FISHES!

YA IGNORANT SWABES! DONT YA KNOW THAT ALL YA GOT TO DO TO DRIVE THE EVIL SPIRITS AWAY FROM THIS SHIP IS KILL A CHICKEN AN' LET THE BLEED DRIP OVER THE PORT RAIL—I'M SURPRIZED AT YA!

GO BELOW OR I'LL SMACK YA FORE AN' AFT!

BRINGING UP FATHER

NOW LISTEN, BOYS—I'VE GOT TO BE ELECTED MAYOR OF THIS CITY.

WE'RE FOR YOU, JIGGS!

SAY, BO—WE WON'T DESERT YOUSE FER THE WORLD.

HEY, BOYS! MISS LOTTA VOTES, THE DAME THAT'S RUNNIN' FER MAYOR, IS PASSIN'—

GEES! SHE'S A SWEET LOOKER!

OH, BOY—

I'VE GOT A LOT OF LOYAL SUPPORTERS!

His Loyal Supporters

POLLY AND HER PALS

BA—BES ASH?

THEM WAS HIS VERY WORDS GAL.

DO YOU REALIZE THAT ASHUR URL PERKINS IS A LOW-GRADE MORON?

PUFFICALLY POLLY!

AND YET YOU ENVY HIM?

I DOES, DAUGHTER!

I ENVY ANYTHING THAT'S SO DUMB, IT CAN'T EVEN KETCH POISON-IVY!

BEWARE POISON-IVY!

Hired Help

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

7 GALS, NANCY—I'M ALL EXCITED—JIM WONG, THE COOK, IS GOING LET ME WASH MY FACE.

HIM—HE SAID HE WAS GONNA GIVE ME AN AN'FUL HARD JOB—BUT HIS EYES WAS LAUGHIN' WHEN HE SAID IT!

BOSS, HIM SAY—JIM WONG, LIKE AS NO GOOD—NO LIKE AS A CAKE—SAY IT VELL! PUNK—NO CAN ENT!

FREE I THOUGHT YOUR CAKE WAS SWEET!

YOU WORK FOR ME NOW—ME YOOKEE NO GOOD—NO BY IN BY YOU COME BACK—ME HAVE JOB FOR YOU—WHEN CAKE ALL DONE.

YOUR JOB TASTE CAMEE—YOU LIKE EM—BIG BOSS HE LIKE EM—I—YOU NO LIKE EM—JIM WONG—THROW CAKE AWAY!

DARRELL RECAPURE

BARNEY GOOGL

THEM RINGSIDE SEATS COST $50 APECS—I PUT $50 DOWN ON 'EM AN' I GOT $1.00 IN THE 678 NATIONAL BANK—AND I GOT $1.00 FOR WATCHIN' A GUY'S CAR—THAT LEAVES $49.00 TO FORK OVER TO THE BOX OFFICE—

1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc. 8700 British d'gts. owned.

THIMBLE THEATRE, starring POPEYE

I'M YOUNGER! THE FACT THAT YOU GOT ROOMS THIS SHIP—THEY'RE TROUBLE FOR AROUND—YOU GALS WILL BE SORRY YA EVER SEEN THIS SHIP!

GET TO YER CABINS AN' STOP CHEWING THE FAT—THEY'RE TROUBLE FOR AROUND—YOU GALS WILL BE SORRY YA EVER SEEN THIS SHIP!

I'VE GOT A CREW OF OL' TIME SAILOR MEN—AN' THEY KNOWS THE SAME AS I DO THAT WIMMIN' ON A BIG SAILIN' VESSEL IS BAD LUCK!

WHERE'S THEM DAMES?

LOCK YER DOORS—I'LL DO ME BEST TO STOP 'EM!

THEY'RE BAD LUCK ON THIS SHIP, SKIPPER! THROW THEM GALS TO THE GALS FISHES!

YA IGNORANT SWABES! DONT YA KNOW THAT ALL YA GOT TO DO TO DRIVE THE EVIL SPIRITS AWAY FROM THIS SHIP IS KILL A CHICKEN AN' LET THE BLEED DRIP OVER THE PORT RAIL—I'M SURPRIZED AT YA!

GO BELOW OR I'LL SMACK YA FORE AN' AFT!

BRINGING UP FATHER

NOW LISTEN, BOYS—I'VE GOT TO BE ELECTED MAYOR OF THIS CITY.

WE'RE FOR YOU, JIGGS!

SAY, BO—WE WON'T DESERT YOUSE FER THE WORLD.

HEY, BOYS! MISS LOTTA VOTES, THE DAME THAT'S RUNNIN' FER MAYOR, IS PASSIN'—

GEES! SHE'S A SWEET LOOKER!

OH, BOY—

I'VE GOT A LOT OF LOYAL SUPPORTERS!

His Loyal Supporters

POLLY AND HER PALS

BA—BES ASH?

THEM WAS HIS VERY WORDS GAL.

DO YOU REALIZE THAT ASHUR URL PERKINS IS A LOW-GRADE MORON?

PUFFICALLY POLLY!

AND YET YOU ENVY HIM?

I DOES, DAUGHTER!

I ENVY ANYTHING THAT'S SO DUMB, IT CAN'T EVEN KETCH POISON-IVY!

BEWARE POISON-IVY!

Hired Help

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

7 GALS, NANCY—I'M ALL EXCITED—JIM WONG, THE COOK, IS GOING LET ME WASH MY FACE.

HIM—HE SAID HE WAS GONNA GIVE ME AN AN'FUL HARD JOB—BUT HIS EYES WAS LAUGHIN' WHEN HE SAID IT!

BOSS, HIM SAY—JIM WONG, LIKE AS NO GOOD—NO LIKE AS A CAKE—SAY IT VELL! PUNK—NO CAN ENT!

FREE I THOUGHT YOUR CAKE WAS SWEET!

YOU WORK FOR ME NOW—ME YOOKEE NO GOOD—NO BY IN BY YOU COME BACK—ME HAVE JOB FOR YOU—WHEN CAKE ALL DONE.

YOUR JOB TASTE CAMEE—YOU LIKE EM—BIG BOSS HE LIKE EM—I—YOU NO LIKE EM—JIM WONG—THROW CAKE AWAY!

DARRELL RECAPURE

BARNEY GOOGL

THEM RINGSIDE SEATS COST $50 APECS—I PUT $50 DOWN ON 'EM AN' I GOT $1.00 IN THE 678 NATIONAL BANK—AND I GOT $1.00 FOR WATCHIN' A GUY'S CAR—THAT LEAVES $49.00 TO FORK OVER TO THE BOX OFFICE—

1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc. 8700 British d'gts. owned.

THIMBLE THEATRE, starring POPEYE

I'M YOUNGER! THE FACT THAT YOU GOT ROOMS THIS SHIP—THEY'RE TROUBLE FOR AROUND—YOU GALS WILL BE SORRY YA EVER SEEN THIS SHIP!

GET TO YER CABINS AN' STOP CHEWING THE FAT—THEY'RE TROUBLE FOR AROUND—YOU GALS WILL BE SORRY YA EVER SEEN THIS SHIP!

I'VE GOT A CREW OF OL' TIME SAILOR MEN—AN' THEY KNOWS THE SAME AS I DO THAT WIMMIN' ON A BIG SAILIN' VESSEL IS BAD LUCK!

WHERE'S THEM DAMES?

LOCK YER DOORS—I'LL DO ME BEST TO STOP 'EM!

THEY'RE BAD LUCK ON THIS SHIP, SKIPPER! THROW THEM GALS TO THE GALS FISHES!

YA IGNORANT SWABES! DONT YA KNOW THAT ALL YA GOT TO DO TO DRIVE THE EVIL SPIRITS AWAY FROM THIS SHIP IS KILL A CHICKEN AN' LET THE BLEED DRIP OVER THE PORT RAIL—I'M SURPRIZED AT YA!

GO BELOW OR I'LL SMACK YA FORE AN' AFT!

BRINGING UP FATHER

NOW LISTEN, BOYS—I'VE GOT TO BE ELECTED MAYOR OF THIS CITY.

WE'RE FOR YOU, JIGGS!

SAY, BO—WE WON'T DESERT YOUSE FER THE WORLD.

HEY, BOYS! MISS LOTTA VOTES, THE DAME THAT'S RUNNIN' FER MAYOR, IS PASSIN'—

GEES! SHE'S A SWEET LOOKER!

OH, BOY—

I'VE GOT A LOT OF LOYAL SUPPORTERS!

His Loyal Supporters

POLLY AND HER PALS

BA—BES ASH?

THEM WAS HIS VERY WORDS GAL.

DO YOU REALIZE THAT ASHUR URL PERKINS IS A LOW-GRADE MORON?

PUFFICALLY POLLY!

AND YET YOU ENVY HIM?

I DOES, DAUGHTER!

I ENVY ANYTHING THAT'S SO DUMB, IT CAN'T EVEN KETCH POISON-IVY!

BEWARE POISON-IVY!

Hired Help

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

7 GALS, NANCY—I'M ALL EXCITED—JIM WONG, THE COOK, IS GOING LET ME WASH MY FACE.

HIM—HE SAID HE WAS GONNA GIVE ME AN AN'FUL HARD JOB—BUT HIS EYES WAS LAUGHIN' WHEN HE SAID IT!

BOSS, HIM SAY—JIM WONG, LIKE AS NO GOOD—NO LIKE AS A CAKE—SAY IT VELL! PUNK—NO CAN ENT!

FREE I THOUGHT YOUR CAKE WAS SWEET!

YOU WORK FOR ME NOW—ME YOOKEE NO GOOD—NO BY IN BY YOU COME BACK—ME HAVE JOB FOR YOU—WHEN CAKE ALL DONE.

YOUR JOB TASTE CAMEE—YOU LIKE EM—BIG BOSS HE LIKE EM—I—YOU NO LIKE EM—JIM WONG—THROW CAKE AWAY!

DARRELL RECAPURE

BARNEY GOOGL

THEM RINGSIDE SEATS COST $50 APECS—I PUT $50 DOWN ON 'EM AN' I GOT $1.00 IN THE 678 NATIONAL BANK—AND I GOT $1.00 FOR WATCHIN' A GUY'S CAR—THAT LEAVES $49.00 TO FORK OVER TO THE BOX OFFICE—

1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc. 8700 British d'gts. owned.

Daily Crossword Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

HORIZONTAL

- 1—Nation
- 2—Step of stairs for a monumental
- 3—First king of
- 4—Lester's
- 5—Lionel with
- 6—Lionel with
- 7—Lionel with
- 8—Lionel with
- 9—Lionel with
- 10—Lionel with
- 11—Lionel with
- 12—Lionel with
- 13—Lionel with
- 14—Lionel with
- 15—Lionel with
- 16—Lionel with
- 17—Lionel with
- 18—Lionel with
- 19—Lionel with
- 20—Lionel with
- 21—Lionel with
- 22—Lionel with
- 23—Lionel with
- 24—Lionel with
- 25—Lionel with
- 26—Lionel with
- 27—Lionel with
- 28—Lionel with
- 29—Lionel with
- 30—Lionel with
- 3
